Iowa football suffered a tragic loss June 28 when Jim Helgens, letterman right end, was killed in a highway accident in Marshalltown. Helgens was thrown out of a truck and killed instantly. He was an exceptionally fine young man, highly-regarded by everyone.

PRESSURE OFF AS NEW TACTICS BOOST IOWA

The unwelcome and practically untenable situation of the Hawkeyes being The unwelcome and practically difference plagued the University of Iowa's ranked No. 1 in the nation in late summer plagued the University of Iowa's new football coach, Jerry Burns, in 1861.

Such a lofty rating, perhaps never before given to a major squad under a such a lofty rating, perhaps never before given to a major squad under a new coach, placed additional burden upon Coach Burns and all the players. new coach, placed additional builden apply all-conference quarterback Wilburn Then came injuries to the two best backs: all-conference quarterback Wilburn Hollis Oct. 7, and all-American halfback Larry Ferguson Sept. 30, eliminating

In addition, junior end Jim Winston broke a leg Oct. 7 and sophomore Lonnie Rogers hurt a knee in September while being groomed for the starting RHB position and never could fulfill his early promise.

So personnel shifts had to be made quickly and the offense had to be altered to use the different talents of the replacements. Game breaks which went to Iowa in the co-champion year of 1960 reversed themselves. Mistakes at vital times were converted into touchdowns or long gains by alert opponents. The result: a 5-4 season, 2-4 in the conference for a tie for seventh . . . first four games won, next four lost, then a tremendous surge of offense which overran the final opponent.

It's different in 1962—and the Hawkeyes like it that way. Iowa will have a good team, perhaps offensively better than in 1961, maybe better on defense, strong passing and receiving (Big Ten No. 1 on completion percentage, .556, last fall, No. 2 in passes attempted and completed), a fast backfield with both power and breakaway potential.

New Attack Patterns

And the team has been given new and intriguing offensive patterns, such as unbalanced line with one tackle and a fifth or "floater" back to open up the defenses for the passing game. It presents varied problems for the defense and capitalizes on receiving talents of swift halfbacks.

On the squad of about 59 athletes are 16 major lettermen, including six who started from 5 to 9 games last fall. Nine of the 16 are seniors. Sixteen lettermen were lost, including five who were regulars in 1961. The 3-deep roster for the spring game with the Alumni showed 11 sophomores.

The returning lettermen who were starters in the majority of the 1961 games are Gus Kasapis, LT (9); Earl McQuiston, LG (9); Bill Perkins, FB (converted from RE) (8); Matt Szykowny, QB (7); Sammie Harris, RHB (6); and Joe Williams, FB (1@FB, 4@LHB).

Captain Larry Ferguson would have been a starter at LHB, a position at which he won all-American honors in 1960. But the knee injury sidelined him in the first eight minutes of the opener so Joe Williams, the No. 1 fullback, was shifted to LHB. Perkins, ex-end who had been sent to fullback to add depth, then became No. 1 there-and averaged 6.1 yards per carry to lead all Iowa rushing gainers.

Other returning lettermen are Lynn Lyon, LE; Wally Hilgenberg and Mike Reilly, LG; George Latta, RT; Cloyd Webb, and Jim Winston, RE; Paul Krause, now "floater"; Lonnie Rogers, RHB; and Dick Turici, FB.

Alternate Unit Doubtful

As always seems to be the case at Iowa, the alternate unit's strength is one key to success. In 1962, the Hawkeyes should have enough backs to sustain a strong attack despite substitutions (with the exception of the thin QB situation), there is a capable crop of ends but the interior linemen are few in number and reserves are short of Big Ten standards unless they develop fast in September.

Lettermen lost were headed by Al Hinton, tackle who made a third all-American team; Sherwyn Thorson and Bill DiCindio, strong and fast guards; linebacking center Bill Van Buren, named on one all-American team; Bernie Wyatt, a defensive halfback specialist; and steady Bill Whisler, who started 6 games at RE and caught 18 passes for 244 yards. Wilburn Hollis, the fine QB, is gone, too, but, of course, he played only about 57 minutes in the first 2 games before breaking his wrist.

The importance of top quarterbacking in a tough league points to an unexpected shallowness at a university noted for strong No. 1 and 2 men since about 1955. A glance backward recalls such fine ones as Jerry Reichow, Ken Ploen, Randy Duncan and Wilburn Hollis-and each was backed up by an effective replacement.

Szykowny Fine Quarterback

Senior Matt Szykowny is a very good No. 1. As a junior, after taking over for Hollis starting Oct. 14, Matt finished seventh in the nation in passing (1,078 yards, .568), second in the Big Ten in passing, and third in total offense. Operating in the spring with the new offense tactics, Szykowny hit on 8 of 15 vs. the alumni pro defense. The smart and imaginative engineering student concentrated on football in the spring, dropping baseball in which he had won his letter in a third sport as a sophomore.

But behind the Pittsburgh senior in the spring were only two other players: Sophomore Bob Wallace and Junior Ron Brocavich, a fourth stringer in 1961. Wallace, an Ohio all-stater, probably has fine potential but few sophomores ever are ready to be thrown into Big Ten ball before they wear off the rough edges. Brocavich, the spark of the "Mau-Maus" (third and fourth scrimmage teams), is a hard worker with courage but he played in only three 1961 games after Iowa had amassed large leads.

With Szykowny handling the attack, Iowa can call upon a shrewd combination of running and passing. Mat can throw to 3 lettermen ends, all good receivers, headed by long-armed Cloyd Webb, who ranked second in the Big Ten and 23rd in the nation (25 catches for 426 yards). With the new formation, Szykowny also can fire to the "floater" backs such as veterans Sammie Harris and Paul Krause.

Captain vs. Sophomore

Captain Ferguson, although not in 1960 form on his repaired knee last spring, is a left halfback who can go all the way or drive for short yardage. Ferguson was the league's best rusher in 1960, an average of 6.7 in conference games, and had 7.3 for the season. He also is a good blocker and smart on defense.

A sophomore of promise is Willie Ray Smith, a 180-pounder who can run the 100 in :09.6 and has startling fakes and cutbacks. Once sprung loose, Willie Ray is gone. But he will have to be extraordinary to beat out the captain. If these two are right, opposing defenses could be run very ragged.

Juniors who were held up by ailments a year ago are right halfbacks Bob LeZotte, Bobby Grier, and Lonnie Rogers. Rogers is a strong all-around player who had a successful knee operation and so missed spring drill. Grier came fast to be a surprise in May, after falling short in 1961, and LeZotte. a battling redhead, looked ready.

Joe Williams, who was third among Iowans with a 5.6 average as a fullback in 1960 and second with 4.6 as a left halfback in 1961, has gone back to his original position. But the man who tied the second-best conference record for kickoff return, 100 yards, still is behind Bill Perkins, the former end whose 6.1 average topped Hawks last fall.

Unlike last year, the fullback spot is well fortified, for two big sophomores, Victor Davis and Delbert Gehrke, are available, along with senior letterman Dick Turici. There is speed, power, experience—and position competition.

Veterans at Ends

The end situation has lost luster, with the ineligibility of Senior LE Felton Rogers and the highway death of Jim Helgens. The best pass-catcher is Cloyd Webb at RE, Lynn Lyon is LE and Jim Winston is trying to comeback after his 1961 leg break.

The left tackle, and a good one, is Gus Kasapis, who plays both ways, backed up by Letterman George Latta on offense. Latta goes to right tackle on defense. Phil Deutsch, sophomore, and Hugh Fisher, senior, along with junior John Sunseri, are other tackles. Under the new plan, Iowa will use only one tackle on effense much of the time. one tackle on offense much of the time.

Earl McQuiston at right guard could win "all" honors as a senior after starting all games in 1961. Wally Hilgenberg and Mike Reilly, letterman juniors, are about even at left guard, vacated by Sherwyn Thorson, followed by sophomore Joe DeAntona. Back of McQuiston are sophomores Bernard Budzik and Bob Pelsang.

No lettermen are available at center for the first time in years.

Help may be forthcoming from nine other players, seven of them 1961 squad members who did not win letters. They are Bob Sherman, RHB, leading hitter on the baseball team who missed spring drill; Allan Fischer, LG; Loren Hilliard, "floater"; Bill Niedbala, LE (also from the baseball team); and Roger Wehrle, RE. Sophomores are Bob Mitchell, LT; Justus Reid, "floater"; Tony Giocobazzi, LE; and Lovic Williams, DR. Tony Giocobazzi, LE; and Louis Williams, RE.

BRONZE STATUE OF CHAMPION HOG GOES TO IOWA-MINNESOTA WINNER

To the winner of the Iowa-Minnesota football game goes possession of a bronze statue of a prize pig.

Until it loses a game, the winning university is permitted to keep the trophy. It all started in 1935 when Governor Floyd Olson of Minnesota and Governor Clyde Herring of Iowa bet a prize porker on the outcome of the game.

It was the year of tension between followers of the Hawkeyes and Gophers, and the wager was a diplomatic move to ease this tension. Iowa lost the game at Iowa City, 13-6, in a contest without any bad incidents, to a Minnesota team which later earned the title of mythical national champion.

So the Governor of Iowa presented the Governor of Minnesota with a full-blooded porcine champion, Floyd of Rosedale. Governor Olson gave the husky hog to the university and commissioned Charles Brioschi of St. Paul, a sculptor, to create a statue.

The statue, 21 inches long and 151/2 inches high, is mounted upon a heavy metal and wooden base. Around the middle is a replica of a sash, with spaces for scores of games up to Minnesota had possession of Floyd in the flesh in 1935, and of the statue in 1936, 1937, 1938, 1940, 1941, 1942, 1943, 1944, 1946, 1948, 1949, 1952, 1954, 1960, 1961.

Iowa enjoyed the statue in 1939, 1945, 1947, 1950, 1953, 1955, 1956, 1957, 1958, and 1959. Since the 1951 game was a tie, Iowa, already in possession, kept the statue.

DIRECTOR FOREST EVASHEVSKI It's His Third Year As Sports Administrator

Forest Evashevski became Iowa's director of intercollegiate athletics in 1960, after retiring from football coaching. During his nine seasons as Hawkeve coach he brought Iowa football to its all-time peak.

He became the athletic administrator Aug. 15, 1960, with the understanding that he would handle both jobs during the fall but give up coaching at the end of the season. This arrangement was in complete accordance with his wish.

His Iowa teams in those nine seasons won 52 games, lost 27 and tied 4 for .651. His 1956 and 1958 teams won the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl games and in 1960 the Hawkeyes shared the Big Ten crown with Minnesota. Evy is Iowa's "winningest" coach.

Iowa's five-year record in the Big Ten, 1956 through 1960, was the best in the league: 22 wins, 7 losses and 1 tie in conference games.

In 1958, Iowa's team led the nation in total offense and set a Big Ten record for average yards per game, 416.7. This team was voted by Football Writers' Association as the U.S. No. 1 team, winner of Look Magazine's Grantland Rice trophy.

No other university can match Iowa's record of finishing in the top six of the national polls four times in the last five seasons. This included third in AP and UP polls in 1956, sixth in AP and fifth in UP in 1957: second in both 1958 and second in UP-I and third in AP, 1960.

In 12 years as a head coach (Hamilton College, 1941; Washington State, 1950 and 1951; and Iowa 1952 through 1960), Evy's teams won 67, lost 35 and tied 6 for .648.

Many honors came to Evy during his Iowa coaching career. He was named coach of the year nine times from 1953 through 1960 by such organizations as Los Angeles Times, Washington, D.C. Touchdown Club, Columbus, O. Touchdown Club and Detroit Times.

David Condon of the Chicago Tribune said: "Midwestern college football is a game of men. Occasionally it also spawns a giant among men. One of these has been Forest Evashevski who retired from active coaching with the stature of a champion. Coaching will miss his brilliance, his tenacity and his influence. But the hunch is that you have just seen the beginning of Evy's influence and leadership.

So Evy got his wish: to retire from coaching while he still is a young man (42) not becoming the "Mr. Chips of Iowa football." He successfully recommended Jerry Burns, his backfield coach, as his successor, Burns taking the job at 34, the same age as Evy when he came to Iowa in 1952.

The director was born in Detroit, Mich., Feb. 19, 1918. He and his wife, Ruth, have seven children ranging in age from four months to 20: Forest, Jr., James, Marion, John, Tom, William, and Katherine.

COACH JERRY BURNS In "Sophomore" Season As Grid Head of Hawks

When Jerome M. (Jerry) Burns was named as the State University of Iowa's eighteenth head football coach Nov. 19, 1960, he was praised by Forest Evashevski, former coach turned Director of Athletics, as a brilliant young man who has "great ability to organize, a fine football mind and one who commands the respect of the squad."

No sooner had the announcement been made than Iowans became happy, for they knew that the university was elevating a man who was the personal choice of Evy and one who has the potential to develop more fine Hawkeye football teams.

The appointment of the 34-year-old Burns was announced on the final day of the 1960 season by University President Virgil Hancher. Terms of the agreement with Burns were for a 3-year contract at $15,000 per year $5,000 less than the salary paid to former head coach Evv.

Jerry's assistant coaches and players expressed confidence in Burns at the time of the appointment and throughout the 1961 season. And the head coach returned that faith by retaining all of Evy's former assistants and by adding a former fine Michigan high school coach to fill his own vacated job as backfield aide.

Praise from Flora

Bob Flora, the oldest man on the coaching staff, hailed Burns as a great coach. "Jerry is very mature in his thinking and is a fine teacher. He has the complete respect of the squad," he said.

Jerry was born in Detroit, Jan. 27, 1927, (35 years old) and graduated from Catholic high school there. He went to the University of Michigan where he was a member of the football squad and reserve quarterback on the 1950 Wolverine team which won the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl game.

He received his bachelor of science degree in physical education at Michigan in 1951. That fall he served under Archie Kodros at the University of Hawaii. (Archie is now one of Jerry's assistants.) Burns went to Whittier College of California in 1952 as backfield coach and in 1953 moved to St. Mary's of Redford high school in Detroit where he coached three sports. He was voted the high school coach of the year in the Detroit area.

Came to Iowa in 1954

Burns came to the university in August, 1954, as co-coach of the freshman squad. He was made assistant backfield coach in 1955 and in 1959 was promoted to backfield coach following the departure of "Bump" Elliott to Michigan.

One of Jerry's greatest assets is his ability to make friends and those who know him best insist there is no one they would rather have on their side than the new Iowa coach.

Sportsmanship-not the word but the deed-is also a great Burns asset. He can suffer a loss without complaining yet can take victory in stride. He is a balanced individual.

When the 1961 season opened, the Hawks already had been picked by the press as the national champion. Jerry warned writers early in September that the breaks would play an important part in the season's outcome and that the squad was not as deep at key line positions as would be necessary for the long, tough schedule ahead.

Under Jerry, the Hawkeyes rolled to 4 straight wins, then dropped 4 before coming on strong in the last game of the year to stomp Notre Dame, 42-21.

Won First Four

After beating California and Southern California, the Hawkeyes easily handled Indiana and ran wild against a good Wisconsin team, 47-15. But Purdue won a shut-out on a muddy field in a heavy rain and Ohio State took a victory when Iowa was beset by a series of bad breaks and alert Buckeye football.

Minnesota also capitalized on Iowa errors, and Michigan combined an inspired second half with more Iowa miscues to win after Iowa had led, 14-3, at the half. Iowa finished with 2-4 in the conference and a share of seventh.

Hawkeyes closed the season with a tremendous offensive display vs. Notre Dame, dominating the play, 42-7, before the Irish scored twice in the final minute against deep-down reserves.

Two modern Iowa records were equalled, both by Joe Williams. He scored 3 touchdowns vs. USC to join 4 other Hawkeyes as a record-holder and his 100-yard runback of a kickoff for a TD vs. Notre Dame tied a 10year-old mark.

Hawkeyes ranked well in statistics for the conference season: fifth on offense, tied for fourth on defense, first in pass completion percentage, first in opponents' pass completion percentage, second in passes completed, third in average yards punts returned, and fourth in first downs, opponents' first downs, opponents' net yards, opponents' yards per play, and average yards of kickoff returns.

On the "Spot" Early

Throughout, Jerry showed the people of Iowa and the nation what type of stuff he's made of: he took the job. and was on the "spot" before the season started because of an optimistic press: then his squad dropped four ball games, and rumors started to fly. Burns kept his cheerful attitude and defended his Hawks when questioned.

He took the blame for the losses, making no alibis.

Jerry is quick, alert, a master of detail and not afraid of new ideas and methods. Burns also has youthful enthusiasm and energy and a deep love for football.

He has ready wit and a quick, incisive way of speaking. In his talks before groups, he impresses with his sincerity, humility, lively comments and practical knowledge.

Demands Respect

Burns demands tremendous respect from the players on the field, but he's not harsh. He has a great talent for "chewing out" a sloppy ball player, but has the ability to do it in such a way that the player responds with a better job.

Burns spends many hours at his desk with players who have problems -either football, academic, or personal. His whole life revolves around sports and athletes.

But off the field, Jerry is a dedicated family man who wishes he could spend more time with his wife, Marlyn, and their four children: Michael, born in 1956; Erin, born in 1957; Kelleen, born in 1959; and Kathleen Lois, born in 1960.

1961 GAME SUMMARIES

IOWA 28, CALIFORNIA 7 Sept. 30, At Iowa City

California, making its first appearance at Iowa City, gave Iowa a good opening game until weakening in the final period, although the Hawkeyes never let the game get out of control. Iowa scored its first TD midway in the first quarter on Wilburn Hollis' 22-yard burst and Hollis scored another in the second quarter.

The Bears scored a freak TD as the half ended when a back fumbled a pitchout around end but won the race for the ball in the end zone.

Paul Krause, sophomore halfback, ran 30 yards for Iowa's third TD in the fourth quarter and with 34 seconds left another soph, Lonnie Rogers, went 4 yards for a score. The fourth TD was set up by a pass interference penalty to the Cal two.

It was the first Iowa game under the new coach, Jerry Burns, and Iowa entered the contest ranked No. 1 nationally in the press service pre-season polls.

Leading Iowa individuals: Hollis 124 yards in 21 carries; Sammie Harris, 77 in 17; Paul Krause, 56 in in 6. All-American halfback Larry Ferguson was injured in the first three minutes after running for 35 yards in 3 plays.

This was a nationally-televised game and no script writer could have devised a more exciting plot of suspenseful climaxes and dramatic excitement.

Iowa went to work to make it 21-0 with 8:35 to play in the second period. The first TD was set up by a 59-yard run by Bill Perkins which carried to the SC 6. Iowa was thrown back to the 20 but on fourth and goal, Wilburn Hollis, on a fake place kick, threw a screen pass to Joe Williams for the TD. Then Iowa recovered a fumble on the SC 41 and Hollis passed to Williams for a TD.

About 2 minutes later, the kickoff return was fumbled, recovered in mid-air by Dayton Perry on the SC 23 and Iowa scored in 4 plays.

Then SC went from its own 44 to score, then from the Iowa 23 and at the half it was 21-14. SC scored again on a 49-yard drive in the third quarter, missed the extra point, so it was 21-20.

Stung by the comeback, Iowa moved ahead on a drive from the I-49 led by a 23-yard pass, Hollis to Krause, and a Syzkowny pass to Webb for 23 and a TD. Perry in the fourth quarter intercepted a pass and Iowa went from its own 47 in 6 plays, 38 on passes, Hollis scoring on a sneak.

With 35-20 and 5:52 left, Iowa seemed safe. But the SC passer throwing as he fell backwards, hit on a 71-yard TD play. Then SC picked up a fumble on the I-28 and scored on a 5-yard pass, the sixth play, with 48 seconds left.

The same pass play was tried for a two-pointer to win the game, but Sammie Harris darted across to knock the ball down and preserve the victory.

Leading Hawkeyes: Perkins, 94 in 10; Hollis, 63 in 14; Williams, 37 in 8; Hollis hit 5 of 10 passes for 120 yards and 2 TDs; Szykowny 2 of 3 for 34 yards and one score. Joe Williams scored 3 touchdowns.

Scoring Sequence Hollis (I) pass to Williams, 20 yards; :40 left in first (Szykowny PAT kick failed); Hollis (I) pass to Williams, 41 yards, 10:53 left in second (Hollis to Rogers PAT pass); Williams (I) 4 yards, 8:35 left in second (Szykowny PAT kick); Nelsen (SC), 1 yard, 5:45 left in second; (Skvarna PAT kick); Beathard (SC), 1 yard, :34 left in second (Skvarna PAT kick); Nelsen (SC) pass to Hoover, 17 yards, 2:47 left in third (Skvarna PAT kick blocked); Szykowny (I) pass to Webb, 23 yards, :35 left in third (Szykowny PAT kick); Hollis (I) 2 yards, 5:52 left in fourth (Szykowny PAT kick); Nelsen (SC) pass to Bedsole, 71 yards, 4:25 left in fourth (Nelsen to Bedsole PAT pass); Nelsen (SC) pass to Bedsole, 5 yards, :48 left in fourth, (Nelsen to Bedsole PAT pass knocked down by Harris).

IOWA 27, INDIANA 8 Oct. 14, At Iowa City

Att. 56,000 54 deg., clear lowa 6 7 7 7 = 27 Indiana 0 0 0 8 = 8

In the Big Ten opener, Iowa handled Indiana with ease, using 48 players in various combinations against an out-manned Hoosier team. First Iowa TD came after Indiana fumbled on the third play, Iowa recovered and scored on three plays, with Joe Williams going over from the five. Hawkeyes scored again early in the second quarter on a drive which started on the Iowa 39, the big play being a 20-yard pass from Szykowny to Williams.

At the half it was 13-0, but Iowa scored another in the third by covering 77 yards in 10 plays. Szykowny, starting his first game for the injured Wilburn Hollis (wrist broken in the USC game), had a 29-yard pass to Harris and threw a 3-yarder to Bill Whisler for the TD.

Indiana scored in the fourth after picking up a fumble on the Iowa 29 and scoring against Iowa third and fourth stringers.

The final Iowa TD came after a 2yard Hoosier kickoff, and the Hawks went 42 yards in 11 plays.

Leading Iowans: Harris 69 in 11, Krause 65 in 8, Williams, 26 in 10. Szykowny completed 13 for 22 for 128 yards and a TD.

IOWA 47, WISCONSIN 15 Oct. 21, At Iowa City (HC) Att. 60,150 (stadium record)

Aroused Iowa raced to its greatest total of points in a Homecoming game, its highest score against Wisconsin and the greatest margin of victory over the Badgers on a perfect afternoon before an Iowa stadium record crowd.

Badgers never really were in the ball game. Iowa scored with 12:40 left in the first period and with 2:30 had another. The first was the result of a 59-yard run by Williams to the Wisconsin 2, from where Bernie Wyatt scored his first Iowa TD in 3 years. The second drive started on the I-49, with main plays being passes by Szykowny for 30 yards, the final one to Cloyd Webb for the score.

Hawks had another in the early part of the second period, after Mike Reilly, guard, had brought an intercepted pass back to the W-24 and about 5 minutes later scored again after taking a Badger fumble on the W-33 and a pass from Szykowny to F. Rogers ate up 13 yards.

The third TD of the second quarter came after Guard Thorson ran a Badger pass 26 yards to the W-28 and Szykowny hurled to Webb for the TD, so it was an astonishing 33-0 at the half.

Wisconsin got on the scoreboard in the third quarter after gaining 47 yards on two runs but Iowa soon marched from its 22 with four passes by Szykowny going for 53 yards, the final one to Williams. Final Iowa score was early in the fourth period when Bill Whisler picked off a flat pass and ran 21 yards.

Badgers scored 8 points against the fourth team, largely on Ron Miller's 28 yards on passes. Iowa used 49 players, the first team playing no more than about 22 minutes.

Iowa leaders: Williams 95 in 9, Harris, 34 in 12, LeZotte, 34 in 4. Szykowny hit 14 of 17 passes for 169 yards and 3 TDs and Calhoun connected on 5 of 7 for 53 yards. Matt completed all of his first 9 passes.

PURDUE 9, IOWA 0 Oct. 28, At Lafavette

Hard, rain, heavy mud and potent Purdue ruined Iowa's record at the Boilermaker homecoming in a repeat of the disaster at a similar affair under the same conditions in 1959. The shutout came after Iowa had scored in 78 straight games since the last game of 1952 and the defeat was Iowa's first of 1961, dropping the team from a tie for the conference lead to fourth.

Purdue's style of game was suited to the heavy field and the rain, whereas Iowa's fast and intricate attack could not function consistently.

After intercepting a pass on the I-37, Purdue lost 10 yards but completed a pass for 19 then Iowa was assessed a 15-yard penalty which placed the ball on the I-12. On a 4th and 1 situation on the 3, Purdue scored the TD but the PAT was spoiled by a fumbled hold.

Iowa could not get its attack under way and until the fourth quarter did not penetrate beyond the Purdue 39. Meanwhile, the Riveters scored a third quarter field goal of 27 yards.

Hawks got to the 30 in the late stages after a pass from Szykowny to Webb for 30 yards but an interception on the P-10 wrecked Iowa's last chance.

Iowa leaders: Wyatt, 24 in 6, Perkins, 24 in 8; Williams, 23 in 9; Harris 20 in 8. Szykowny completed 8 of 17 passes for 82 yards.

Steady and consistent Ohio State, at homecoming before the largest crowd in years, took quick advantage of Iowa errors to win a big one, stay tied for first, avenge the 35-12 defeat by Iowa of 1960 and eliminate Iowa as a title-contender.

Iowa was victimized by breaks and killed by its own mistakes. A pop-up fumble by Sammie Harris was grabbed by a Buckeye end and carried 55 yards for the first TD.

A pass interception gave Ohio State the ball on Iowa's 30 in the second quarter and a pass scored from the Iowa 18.

Iowa missed scoring in the first quarter after a march from the I-26 but on fourth and 8 from the 8, Szykowny's pass on a fake placement was incomplete in the end zone.

Hawks drove from the I-27 in the third quarter, on an 18-yard run by Harris, 27 by Perkins, and a pass to Felton Rogers for 15. Szykowny sneaked for the TD and it was 12-7.

In the fourth. Ohio State scored on a 62-yard pass play after 5 Iowans had good shots at the receiver. Six minutes later, Bucks had another score on a field goal and scored a TD with 1:55 left after intercepting a pass, running to the I-21 and scoring on 3 plays. Iowa scored again with :12 left after moving from the I-16, topped by a 32-yard pass to Williams.

Hawks won most of the statistics except the final score. Perkins led rushers with 72 for 11 and Krause had 39 for 13. Szykowny completed 11 of 22 passes for 168 yards but had 3 intercepted.

Scoring Sequence

This was one Iowa wanted since the defeat at Minneapolis in 1960 but again errors frustrated the Hawkeyes and gave Minnesota the openings it needed, 16-9.

Iowa scored on a safety early in the first quarter. After moving well from the I-41, topped by a 45-yard pass to Felton Rogers, Szykowny's pass from the M-11 was intercepted on the 1 but the Gophers went into the end zone and was tackled for the safety.

Minnesota scored a field goal in the second period from the 26 after Iowa had held for 3 downs. It remained 3-2 until the fourth quarter. Iowa had moved to the M-5 on a drive from the I-23 as the third period opened but lost the ball on a fumble after having first down on the 5.

Gophers were held, punted, and the receiver fumbled on the M-45. But a great stand by Iowa held for downs on the I-1. Disaster struck again; another pass interception on the I-44 and a 39-yard pass for a Gopher TD.

Four minutes later, Gophers had another on a blocked punt which bounded into the end zone and was recovered for a TD. This made it 16-2 and the ball game.

The Iowa TD was scored after 67 yards gained on passes, the last one of 33 yards to Webb with 3 seconds

Iowa's runners were held to 39 yards, lowest total since 1952. Perkins with 27 in 7 was the leader. Szykowny completed 13 of 26 passes for 200 yards.

Scoring Sequence

Safety, Iowa (Frisbee tackled in end zone by F. MICHIGAN 23, IOWA 14 Nov. 18, At Ann Arbor

cloudy Att. 61,925 0 0 - 14lowa 3 0 13 7 - 23 Michigan

After leading, 14-3, at the half, Iowa did a complete reversal while Michigan came on strong to dominate the second half and take the ball game. It was one of the strangest reversals in many years of Iowa football, for Iowa was held to minus 4 yards in the second half, while Michigan made 240 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Wolverines scored first, a field goal with 10:14 to play in the first quarter after Iowa had stopped a drive on the I-24. Iowa came right back, however, scoring on 5 plays from the I-27. The big play was a 49-vard pass from Szykowny to Webb, down to the M-4, from which point Perkins scored.

Iowa had another TD with 3:26 to play in the second quarter. This was made after a drive which started on the I-30 and in 13 plays Iowa scored. Perkins ran for 31 of the 70 yards and Williams scored from the one.

But everything bad happened in the second half. Michigan received and completed three straight passes. With the ball on the I-44, Glinka rolled to the right, found receivers covered, so cut down the sidelines for a TD. The PAT made it 14-10 and only 2:31 of the third quarter had elapsed.

Iowa's attack failed and Michigan got the ball on the M-29. But on a third and 14 situation on the M-25, Chapman started around end, dropped the ball, it bounded back into his hands and he went 54 yards to the I-21. Raimey made all of the remaining yards on 4 carries and Michigan took the lead, 16-14.

Michigan added the clincher in the fourth quarter on a drive from the M-40. The TD was scored on a 20-vard

IOWA 42, NOTRE DAME 21 Nov. 25, At Iowa City

54 deg., cloudy Att. 58,000 21 14 7 0 - 42 lowa 0 7 0 14 - 21 Notre Dame

Pent-up fury which developed during previous Saturday frustrations exploded all over Notre Dame, as the Hawkeves massacred the Irish, 42-21. in a great exhibition of all phases of fine football.

Notre Dame could do little right and the Hawkeyes were quick to take advantage of blunders, recovering six ND fumbles and intercepting five passes. Iowa scored 21 points in the first quarter and 14 in the second and the halftime lead of 35-7 was one of the greatest ever enjoyed by an Iowa team after 30 minutes of play.

Iowa scored with 11 minutes to play in the first quarter. Lonnie Rogers ran an intercepted pass back 22 yards to the I-48 and three plays later Bill Perkins cracked through for a 43yard TD run and the rout was on.

With 5:24 left in the first, Iowa recovered a fumble and moved 51 yards for a TD. The third touchdown came less than a minute later when Hawks picked up a fumble on the ND 3 and Matt Szykowny sneaked for the score after a 12-yard pass to Bill Whisler.

After holding ND for downs, Iowa started on its 30 and went the distance in 4 plays, the last one a 45yard pass from Szykowny to Sammie Harris. It was 28-0 when the Irish scored on a drive from their 35. But Joe Williams ran 100 yards for a TD with the next kickoff, tying the Iowa all-time record. Iowa missed another TD by inches as the half ended, 35-7.

Many Iowa players performed in the second half. The single Iowa TD was on an 80-yard drive, 55 on passes. Notre Dame scored its 2 touchdowns with 55 seconds to play, on a 34-yard pass interception and with :35 on the clock and on a 44-yard pass when Iowa third and fourth stringers were on the field.

Iowa leaders: Perkins, 86 in 4, Williams, 35 in 6; Szykowny completed 13 of 19 passes for 221 yards. Williams and Szykowny each scored two touchdowns.

Scoring Sequence

The State University of Iowa in 1962 launches its 74th straight season of varsity football. It all started in 1889 when the first and only game of the year was played-and lostwith Grinnell College.

Players of the early 90's had little support, financial or otherwise. They struggled through from three to six games, but in 1896 the first paid coach, A. E. Bull, sent the team through a seven-game schedule.

First unbeaten team was that of 1899 which won eight games and tied another under coaching of Arthur

Knipe.

On December 1, 1899, Iowa entered the Western Conference. The 1900 team, first to play in the league, won two conference games and tied one, to share the title with Minnesota. Full season's record was 7-0-1.

Dr. Knipe left in 1901, and four coaches were hired in the following nine years. Top teams were those of 1903, 9-2; and 1905, 8-2.

Some fair teams played between 1913 and 1920. In 1921 Howard Jones coached the first unbeaten and untied eleven (7-0-0), which won the clear Big Ten title. The 1922 team, also unbeaten and untied (7-0-0), shared the championship with Michi-

The turbulent thirties were marked by three coaching changes, and it took years for Iowa athletics to recover from the 1929-30 suspension from the conference.

Iowa rose to second in 1939 and had a 6-1-1 season's record in Dr. Eddie Anderson's first year as head coach. The Iron Men were led by Nile Kinnick, all-American halfback and AP athlete of the year.

With Dr. Anderson in service wartime teams of young civilians kept football alive at Iowa despite discouraging defeats by trainee-strengthened clubs. In 1946, with Anderson back, Iowa finished fourth.

After Dr. Anderson's resignation in January, 1950, Iowa was coached in 1950 and 1951 by Leonard Raffensperger, who had been elevated from freshman coach. His teams had a 5-10-3 record.

Forest Evashevski, named head coach Jan. 6, 1952, coached from 1952 through 1960 and became the "winningest" coach in Iowa history.

In his fifth year as head coach. 1956, Evashevski developed the Big Ten champion team and winner of the Rose Bowl game-first time since 1922 (tie) that Iowa had figured in a title. Iowa had a 9-1 season's record, 5-1 in the conference

Two years later, in 1958, Iowa won the Big Ten title again, also with a 5-1 record. And again a Rose Bowl game was won, with California as the victim January 1, 1959.

Iowa was third in 1957, with a 4-1-1 mark and 7-1-1 for the season. Loss of the final conference game to Ohio State in the last four minutes kept Iowa from the title.

Then, in 1960, Iowa shared the conference title with Minnesota, again with a 5-1 record, and had a mark of 8-1 for the season.

In August, 1960, Evy was named director of athletics. He handled both jobs, director and coach, through the 1960 season.

Then Jerry Burns, his backfield coach, was named to the head job with a three-year contract.

Burn's 1961 team had a 5-4 record after early season injuries to key men forced a revision of the offense.

GAME COVERAGE FROM THE PRESS BOX

Press, radio and television men will enjoy the State University of Iowa's fine press box for the fifth season.

It is known as an extremely functional box, large, well-designed and with excellent equipment. The box, rising some 100 feet above the ground behind the west stand, was completed during the 1958 season at a cost of more than $450,000.

Built of steel, aluminum, concrete and glass, the box has four floors, three of them enclosed. It is 156 feet long, extending from one 25-yard line to the other. An elevator from the ground level serves each floor.

The first floor is chiefly for working press. Here are 89 comfortable individual swivel seats, with enough desk space to facilitate work. There are 35 seats in the first row, 30 in the second, and 24 in the third,

One of the convenient features which has brought praise from working writers is the plan of having Western Union teletype machines on tables directly behind the writers in the first row. Nothing is too crowded, for there is an ample aisle. Writers need merely to pass their sheets of copy over their shoulder to the teletype operator. On the first floor also are booths for the statistics crew. the home and visitor's coaches' phone to bench, timers, press box, and stadium public address announcers, two rest rooms, a coat-hanging area, and an enclosed working area where the Sports Information staff duplicates and assembles the twelve sheets of statistics and other information. Visiting scouts are seated in the south section of the second row.

The second floor is mainly for radio and television. Ten radio pooths are large and well arranged, with movable windows. There is a large TV area, capable of handling any type of national television. A snack bar is behind the booths, and from this area refreshments are prepared for serving throughout the press box.

Photographers have space on the third floor; still pictures, movies, and newsreels are accommodated here. Six more radio booths are available. and there are four film darkrooms for quick processing of photographs. A special section on this floor accommodates official guests of the president.

The roofless top deck can be used in various ways, such as space for overflow radio, and for extra large cameras on tripods.

Electricity heats the entire box, with separate switches for each portion. The best of lights are installed, and the interior is finished attractively.

Here are the regulations and procedures for distribution of tickets:

Please write for your working press needs for each game you plan to cover at least ten days before the game, indicating whether or not you will require a wire. Give the name of the person assigned to cover.

No tickets will be mailed to out-ofstate papers after Tuesday preceding the game. They will be held at the Sports Information Office, Room 110, Field House, until 11:45 a.m. on Saturday, then from noon to 1:30 p.m. at press box elevator entrance, center of west stand.
