The Athletic Director

CHALMERS (BUMP) ELLIOTT, whose background includes 23 years in the Big Ten as player, coach, and administrator, is the new athletic director at Iowa. He has been personally involved in five Big Ten football championships and five Rose Bowl appearances. The personable Elliott, a former star at Michigan, came to Iowa from his alma mater, where he had been associate athletic director for 18 months.

Bump is no stranger to Iowa fans. He was a popular assistant football coach with the Hawkeyes for five years and was instrumental in a Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl victory in 1956.

Elliott played three sports at Michigan in 1946-47-48. A brilliant halfback, he topped the Big Ten in scoring in 1947 with 54 points and spurred the Wolverines to Big Ten and Rose Bowl championships. He led his team in pass receiving and averaged more than 5 yards a carry. He earned All-America honors, as did his brother Pete, a Michigan quarterback. Bump also played parts of two seasons (1943-44) as a Marine trainee at Purdue. He was the Big Ten's MVP in 1947.

Bump coached football for 21 years, the last 10 as head coach at Michigan. His tenure there was highlighted by a Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl victory in 1964. His record with the Wolverines was 51-41-2. He served as an assistant coach at Oregon State (1948-51), Iowa (1952-56), and Michigan (1957-58) before he took the head job there. He recruited the Wolverine team that won a Big Ten co-championship in 1969.

Elliott is a native of Bloomington, Ill. His father, Dr. J. Norman Elliott, was a physician there and also coached at Illinois Wesleyan and Northwestern. Bump was discharged from the Marines in 1946 and earned his degree at Michigan in 1948. He and his wife Barbara have three children: Bill, Bob, and Betsy. He was born in Detroit Jan. 30, 1925.

The Head Coach

RAY NAGEL has experienced some turbulent times in four seasons at Iowa, but through it all he has maintained his equilibrium and sense of humor, and he starts the 1970 season with what may be the most solid Hawkeye team in a decade.

One thing is certain: Ray has made Iowa a very respectable football team, and he had a long way to go when he became head coach. The Hawkeyes had won only once in 13 Big Ten outings when Ray arrived in December, 1965. After two years of struggling, Ray's rookie-dominated team came on strong in 1968, won four of their final six games and jumped into the Big Ten's first division.

Prospects were really bright in 1969, but a black boycott in the spring was a disturbing factor that lingered through fall. The loss of the top two running backs because of injury and academics did not do anything to help continuity. "It was the most difficult season I ever experienced," said Nagel candidly.

Nagel came to Iowa after an eight-year tenure at Utah, where his successes included a 1964 conference championship and a Liberty Bowl victory. When he took the job, he was only 30, making him the nation's youngest major college football coach. His record at Utah was 42-39-1.

Ray enjoyed a fine career at UCLA as a quarterback and safety. His best season was 1948 when he ranked with the top passers in college football. A year later he helped the Bruins beat Iowa, 41-25. Perhaps the only college football coach who holds a law degree, Nagel was on the UCLA staff in 1950-52, was player-coach of the Chicago Cardinals in 1953, and was on the Oklahoma staff a year before returning to UCLA. His next move was to Utah.

Ray and his wife Shirley have five children: Nancy, Bruce (an Iowa tennis player), Tom, Ray, Jr., and Scott. He was born in Los Angeles May 18, 1927.

Assistant Coaches

WAYNE FONTES—Defensive Backs

Wayne joined the Iowa staff in 1968 after serving as a defensive coach at Dayton for two years. He was a fine defensive back at Michigan State. Following his senior season he played in two postseason games. Fontes played with the New York Titans two seasons. He coached at Bay City, Mich., two years and won the league title in 1965. A native of Canton, Ohio, Wayne and his wife Evelyn have three children: Michael, Scott, and Kimberley. Born 2/17/39.

FRANK GILLIAM—Offensive Ends and Flankers

A four-year veteran on the Iowa staff, Frank led Iowa in pass receiving in 1953 and 1954. A broken leg sidelined him in 1955, but he came back the following season to play a key role in Big Ten and Rose Bowl championships. Gilliam, a member of Iowa's all-time team, played with Vancouver in the Canadian League five years. He coached in the Vancouver school system prior to coming to Iowa. A Steubenville, Ohio, native, Frank and his wife Velma have three children: Frank, Jr., Gayle, and Michelle. Born 1/7/34.

HAROLD ROBERTS—Freshmen

Roberts joined the Iowa staff in December, 1969, after serving as a graduate assistant for two seasons. A native of Worthington, Minn., he coached at George, Iowa, and Fenton, Mich. His George teams produced two Hawkeyes, Jon Riemer and Dave Krull, and he had a class B state championship track team there in 1963. His Fenton teams were 17-1 in two seasons. Harold is single, a graduate of Bemidji State and an Army veteran. Born 10/13/39.

LYNN STILES—Defensive Line

A former all-league guard in the Western Athletic Conference, Stiles played at Utah for Ray Nagel. He joined the Utah staff after graduation, then became a Hawkeye aide when Nagel took the Iowa job. He played in the 1962 All-American Bowl and was named to the WAC academic team. A native of Reno, Nev., Lynn and his wife Marigene have two children, Staci Lee and Shon Lynn. Born 4/12/41.

DICK TAMBURO—Defensive Coordinator

Dick is in his fourth year at Iowa after serving on the Arizona State staff nine years. He won all-state honors at New Kensington, Pa., then became an All-America center for Michigan State's 1952 national champions. He played in the East-West, Senior Bowl, and College All-Star postseason games. After getting a degree in police administration, Tamburo played briefly with Hamilton in the Canadian League. The Army veteran and his wife Marie have three children: Debbie, Tamara, and Rick. Born 2/6/30.

DALE TRYON—Offensive Backs

Tryon joined the Iowa staff in February. His teams at Manson, Audubon, and Cedar Rapids Kennedy had a record of 82-17-1 in 13 seasons. They included six league titles and five unbeaten seasons. Dale was named Iowa's coach of the year in 1966. He played football and baseball at Buena Vista and is a native of Glidden. Dale and his wife Janet have four children: Jodie, Danny, Donnie, and David. Born 11/7/35.

JOHN (BUD) TYNES—Offensive Coordinator

Tynes has been with Ray Nagel since 1958 when Ray recruited him at Utah. Bud was the Utes' starting fullback for three years and won all-Western Athletic Conference honors in 1961. He joined the Utah staff after graduation and came to Iowa with Nagel. Bud, a native of Placentia, Calif., and his wife Lyn have two children: Mat and Nathan. Born 8/4/40.

Graduate Assistants

Jon Meskimen, a two-time All-Big Ten offensive guard, is one of a half-dozen graduate students helping with the Iowa football program. Chris Hamilton, the Hawkeyes' safety last year, is another. John Kawala is in his second year helping with the varsity. Bob Gruver, Jerry Senters, and Kim Markhausen are on the freshman staff.

The Outlook

OFFENSIVELY the Hawkeyes will be strong for the third straight year. They are exceptionally deep in running backs and receivers. Uncertain areas are quarterback and the interior line.

Fullbacks include Tim Sullivan, who starred as a junior and missed last season after a motorcycle accident. His status is still uncertain, but even if he can't play, there are Steve Penney, top ground gainer last season, and Frank Holmes, who was very impressive in spring drills. Veteran Levi Mitchell and Dave (The Rave) Harris will be an outstanding tailback tandem.

Ends Kerry Reardon and Ray Manning, and wingback Dennis Green, had a combined 86 pass receptions for 1,223 yards and 10 touchdowns in 1969. Although there is no proven quarterback in Iowa's camp, there is every reason to think Roy Bash, a converted tight end, can handle the No. 1 job. The Hawkeyes should present a well-balanced attack and have the threat of the home run play.

DEFENSIVELY there should be dramatic improvement over a team that gave up 275 points last year. Veterans are plentiful, and a basic 4-3 defensive set has been installed. The front four looks imposing, led by end Layne McDowell and tackle Bill Windauer.

Some rookie linebackers will have to come through, and two of the best are Buster Hoinkes and Tom Cabalka. Dan McDonald made a smooth conversion to linebacker from end, where he was a two-year regular. A letterman anchors every spot in the secondary and there are even some veterans in reserve. Top defensive back is Craig Clemons.

KICKING duties will probably be handled by two veterans. Kerry Reardon has averaged 37.5 yards in punting the last two seasons. Rookie Frank Sunderman will back him up. Marcos Melendez kicked 40 of 44 conversions as a sophomore, then lost his job last year because of injuries.

MAJOR LOSSES include quarterbacks Larry Lawrence and Mike Cilek, whose departure leaves the Hawkeyes without a seasoned signal caller. All-Big Ten Jon Meskimen, Paul Laaveg, and Mel Morris will be missed in the offensive line. End Bill Bevill and linebackers Larry Ely and Rod Barnhart are key absentees on defense.

TOP SOPHOMORES are tailback Dave Harris, linebackers Buster Hoinkes and Tom Cabalka, and defensive end Mike Dillner, although several other rookies are expected to make strong contributions.

COACH NAGEL SAYS: "This is the best football squad I have had in five years at Iowa. We have veterans starting at virtually every position and some excellent sophomores backing them up. Our defense should be greatly improved, and our offense, particularly the running game, should be very good. Michigan and Ohio State look like the favorites in the Big Ten, although with a break or two we could be in contention."

Averaged 10.1 points per game on freshman basketball team last winter. Had an outstanding prep career at Edina where he played with Iowa's Mike Dillner. Born 4/11/51. Major, liberal arts.

Al Cassady, C, 6-2, 228, Sen., Springfield, Ill.

Cassady started at center last fall after spending his sophomore season as a top reserve. Considered one of the steadiest players on the squad, he recovered four fumbled punts in 1969. Played most of his junior season without relief. Earned all-state prep honors at tackle and linebacker. Born 3/28/49. Major, physical education.

Cavole

Clement

Clemons

Ray Cavole, DB, 5-11, 185, Sen., Kansas City, Mo.

Cavole has been one of the team's leading tacklers and pass defenders the past two years. Had 37 solo and 12 assisted tackles in 1969 and owns a two-year total of 68 solos and 24 assists. Dave Clement, LB, 6-0, 198, Sen., Newton, Iowa

Clement's career has been plagued by injuries. Was a top reserve for last half of 1968 season and was a part-time starter in 1969. Was credited with 26 solo and five assisted tackles last fall. Considered one of the top three linebackers in spring drills. Born 1/31/49. Major, recreation.

Craig Clemons, DB, 6-0, 193, Jun., Piqua, Ohio

Clemons led Iowa in tackles through most of the 1969 season before being sidelined with a shoulder injury. A second-team all-league selection last year, he had 72 solo and 30 assisted tackles, intercepted two and broke up seven passes, and had three tackles for 18 yards lost. Played both ways as a freshman. Had an outstanding prep career and once rushed for over 200 yards and scored four touchdowns in a single game. Born 6/1/49. Major, physical education.

Charles Cross, DB, 6-1, 175, Soph., Dubuque, Iowa

Cross is one of the fastest players on the team. Played both ways as a freshman and concentrated on defense in spring drills. Caught four passes for 157 yards and one touchdown as a freshman. Competed in indoor track last winter. Born 9/27/51. Major, liberal arts.

THE OUTLOOK—Oregon State is neither extremely young nor extremely experienced, but Dee Andros still figures the Beavers to be a mighty interesting team. The biggest job confronting Andros is rebuilding the defense, which lost the entire defensive secondary and All-American tackle Jess Lewis. Quarterback Steve Endicott and fullback Dave Schilling, both juniors, spearhead the offense along with running backs Larry Watson, Bill Carlquist, and Sal Cirrincione. OSU's passing game will be improved. Split end Jeff Kolberg is one of the best receivers in the West. Tackle Craig Hanneman is mainstay of the Beaver defense and one of the few seniors on the squad.

THE OUTLOOK—Rose Bowl champion Southern California returns its entire starting offensive backfield and five members of the "Wild Bunch," which gave only 128 points last season. Returning backs are junior quarterback Jimmy Jones and seniors Bobby Chandler, Clarence Davis, and Charlie Evans. Davis, the Trojan tailback, rushed for 1,351 yards last season, sixth best in the country. The Trojan defense is anchored by tackle Tody Smith, end Charlie Weaver, linebacker Greg Slough, and backs Tyrone Hudson and Mike Haluchak. Coach John McKay's main concern is replacing 13 departed lettermen. The Trojans suffered heavy losses in the interior of both offensive and defensive lines, and the defensive secondary.

THE OUTLOOK—Second-year Coach Bob Weber has 32 lettermen returning, including seven offensive and seven defensive starters. The Wildcats' running game is solid with fullbacks Willie Lewis and Greg Boyd, and halfback Joe Petroshus. Junior quarterback Brian Linstrom developed into a fine passer in 1969, and will use sophomore Barry Dean as his top receiver. End Bill McKinley, linebacker Mark Arneson, tackle Jim Ventriglia, and safety Justin Lanne are the top defenders. Weber considers McKinley one of the finest defensive ends in the country. Arizona's chief weakness is the lack of depth, especially at linebacker and in the defensive secondary.

THE OUTLOOK—Rookie Coach John Jardine is working with the best Wisconsin squad in years. The Badgers have 27 lettermen, including four offensive and seven defensive starters. All-American candidate Alan "A-Train" Thompson is the top offensive returnee. The junior fullback rushed for 907 yards last fall. Junior quarterback Neil Graff is improved, and tackle Elbert Walker and guard Roger Jaeger form a solid nucleus around which to rebuild the offensive line. Wisconsin will use a 4-3 defensive set with seniors Bill Gregory and Jim DeLisle, and sophomore Keith Nosbusch the top linemen. Linebackers Chuck Winfrey and Gary Buss, and halfback Danny Crooks are other key defensive performers.

THE OUTLOOK—Rebuilding the defensive line and finding a replacement for quarterback Mike Phipps are the chief concerns of new Purdue coach Bob DeMoss. The Boilermakers lost four-fifths of their defensive front along with All-American cornerback Tim Foley. Nine starters return on offense including end Ashley Bell and running backs Randy Cooper, Stan Brown, and John Bullock. Senior Jeff Jones, who set an NCAA record with 44 successful extra point kicks last year, and sophomore Gary Danielson have the inside track on Phipps' old job. Top sophomores are defensive back Tim Racke, halfback Otis Armstrong, defensive end Gary Hrivnak, and split end Darryl Stingley.

THE OUTLOOK—Improvement is in sight for Michigan State with the return of 32 lettermen and 10 starters. Biggest job facing Coach Duffy Daugherty is rebuilding the offensive line where only center Tom Beard returns. The main strength of the Spartans appears to be the defensive line where veterans Ron Curl, Bill Dawson, and Wilt Martin operate. The defensive secondary is strong with the experienced Clifton Hardy, Harold Phillips, Tom Kutschinski, and sophomore Brad Van Pelt forming the nucleus. Quarterbacking is inexperienced, but could improve behind sophomore George Mihaiu and JUCO transfer Mike Rasmussen. The running and passing game will be much better if Daugherty's offensive line problems are solved.

THE OUTLOOK—The 1970 season should be exciting for the Golden Gophers and Coach Murray Warmath, who has 35 lettermen returning. Replacing quarterback Phil Hagen and defensive linemen Leon Trawick and Jim Pahula is Minnesota's major task. Junior Craig Curry will probably take over for Hagen with reserves filling the defensive line vacancies. The Gophers' running game will be solid with the return of hard-running Barry Mayer and Ernie Cook. The passing attack is questionable and depends a lot on Curry's progress. Except for the end slots, the Minnesota defense is solid with experienced players returning in the interior line, at linebacker, and in the secondary.

THE OUTLOOK—Despite the loss of three-year starters Harry Gonso, John Isenbarger, and Jade Butcher, Coach John Pont is not viewing the 1970 season with alarm. The Hoosier coach feels this year's team is more solid and will be disappointed if they are not in challenging position. Tailback Hank Pogue spearheads the running game. Four quarterbacks, including veterans Mike Heinzman and Greg Brown, are battling for the starting job. Biggest hope for improvement rests on a stronger defense, particularly in the secondary. Defensive end Ed Maguire is IU's prime candidate for All-American honors. The Hoosiers have speed and are bigger. Added depth at several positions should help.

THE OUTLOOK—Always a thorn in Iowa's side, Michigan could be even better than last year's Big Ten co-champions. Second-year coach Bo Schembechler has 33 lettermen back, including six offensive and seven defensive starters, from the 1970 Rose Bowl squad. Biggest problem is to find replacements at tight end, fullback, offensive guard, and in the defensive backfield. Powerful running backs Bill Taylor and Glenn Doughty return along with quarterback Don Moorhead. Despite injuries, Taylor and Doughty formed one of the best tailback combinations in the country last year. The defense, anchored by linemen Fred Grambau, Pete Newell, and Henry Hill and linebackers Marty Huff and Mike Taylor, should be extremely strong.

THE OUTLOOK—Coach Jim Valek is counting on 32 lettermen and numerous sophomores to get Illinois back on the road to respectability. Nine starters or part-time starters return on offense, including All-American tight end candidate Doug Dieken. Interior line depth, backfield speed, and deciding on a quarterback are Valek's offensive headaches. The defense could be improved if Valek can solve the problems at linebacker and in the secondary. Sophomores expected to help are quarterback Mike Wells, receivers Willie Osley, Tom Mullin, and John Bedalow, fullbacks Mike Navarro and Mason Minnes, and defenders Tab Bennett, Dave Wright, Duane Brantley, Jim Rucks, Al Keith, and Larry Allen.

Iowa in the Top Ten

Since the wire services began running polls 30 years ago, Iowa has ranked among the nation's top ten a half-dozen times. Additionally, the Hawkeyes were named national champions by the Football Writers Association in 1958. Here is the way Iowa has been ranked by the Associated Press and United Press International:

1939—No. 9 by both wire services. 1953—No. 9 by both wire services. 1956—No. 3 by both wire services.

1957—No. 5 by UPI, No. 6 by AP. 1958—No. 2 by both wire services. 1960—No. 2 by UPI, No. 3 by AP.

The University

The University of Iowa was founded in 1847 by the state's first general assembly. First classes were held in 1855. Since then the University has graduated nearly 110,000 men and women. Current enrollment is about 20,000.

The first law school west of the Mississippi was established at Iowa in 1868. Today about half the degrees awarded by the University are from its professional colleges, or advanced degrees. Willard L. Boyd is the school's 15th president.

The selection of Nile Kinnick as the greatest player ever to perform for the Hawkeyes highlights the naming of Iowa's all-time football team. Fans selected the team as part of the Big Ten's 75th anniversary celebration in 1970. Calvin Jones received more votes than any other player, but in a separate ballot Kinnick got the greatest player nod over Jones by a sizable margin. Kinnick received the Heisman, Maxwell, and Walter Camp trophies in 1939. Jones won the Outland Trophy in 1955.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore

Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived and hunted with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James G. Edwards of Ft. Madison. Edwards, editor of the Ft. Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and were rewarded when territorial officials gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism. The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a state-wide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 20 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot with a black leather head and gold felt feathers. Since then Herky has become a familiar figure at Hawkeye athletic events.

Floyd of Rosedale

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tension between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation. After Iowa lost the game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of Blue Boy of Will Rogers' movie, "State Fair." Olson presented the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd's image. The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high. Floyd is currently in residence in Minneapolis, but the Hawkeyes hope to regain possession of the pig when they play at Minnesota this fall.

Iowa Stadium

The Hawkeyes have played 188 games in 41 seasons in Iowa Stadium, an arena that was built strictly for football and is located in the center of the University's athletic complex. The stadium was dedicated in October, 1929. Building cost was $500,000. The stadium has undergone many renovations, including additional permanent seats and a new pressbox, which was constructed in 1958 and cost more than the original price of the stadium. A single-game attendance record was established in 1961 when 60,150 watched Iowa beat Wisconsin. Hawkeye teams have won 101 games, lost 76, and tied 11 in Iowa Stadium. For Big Ten games only, the record is 46-54-8.
