The Athletic Director

CHALMERS (BUMP) ELLIOTT, whose background includes 24 years in the Big Ten as player, coach, and administrator, is in his second year as the Iowa athletic director. He has been personally involved in four Big Ten football championships and four Rose Bowl appearances. The personable Elliott, a former star at Michigan, came to Iowa from his alma mater, where he had been associate athletic director for 18 months.

Bump is no stranger to Iowa fans. He was a popular assistant football coach with the Hawkeyes for five years and was instrumental in a Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl victory in 1956.

Elliott played three sports at Michigan in 1946-47-48. A brilliant halfback, he topped the Big Ten in scoring in 1947 with 54 points and spurred the Wolverines to Big Ten and Rose Bowl championships. He led his team in pass receiving and averaged more than 5 yards a carry. He earned All-America honors, as did his brother Pete, a Michigan quarterback. Bump also played parts of two seasons (1943-44) as a Marine trainee at Purdue. He was the Big Ten's MVP in 1947.

Bump coached football for 21 years, the last 10 as head coach at Michigan. His tenure there was highlighted by a Big Ten championship and Rose Bowl victory in 1964. His record with the Wolverines was 51-41-2. He served as an assistant coach at Oregon State (1948-51), Iowa (1952-56), and Michigan (1957-58) before he took the head job there.

Elliott is a native of Bloomington, Ill. His father, Dr. J. Norman Elliott, was a physician there and also coached at Illinois Wesleyan and Northwestern. Bump was discharged from the Marines in 1946 and earned his degree at Michigan in 1948. He and his wife, Barbara, have three children: Bill, Bob and Betsy. He was born in Detroit, Jan. 30, 1925.

The Head Coach

DICK SCHULTZ starts his second year as Iowa's basketball coach hoping to reverse last year's 9-15 record. That mark was turned in by a club that was, except for Fred Brown, totally inexperienced and lost nine games by an average margin of three points. It also lost a potentially outstanding junior college transfer, James Speed, to blindness just before the season began.

Schultz has been a member of the Iowa staff since 1960, when he became freshman coach in baseball and basketball. He was named assistant varsity basketball coach in 1962 and associate head coach just prior to getting the head job in April, 1970. He became acting head baseball coach in 1963 and head coach in 1966. His baseball teams had a record of 126-108.

A native of Kellogg, Iowa, Schultz attended Central College, where he won 10 letters in football, basketball and baseball. After graduation in 1950 he turned down an offer from pro football's Los Angeles Dons and instead signed a baseball contract with the St. Louis Browns. He decided to become a coach, however, and never played professionally, although he played and managed for several years in some fast semi-pro baseball leagues in central Iowa.

Dick began his coaching career at Humboldt, Iowa, in 1950 and remained there until he joined the Iowa staff. He was the school's athletic director his final two years there. During his tenure Humboldt won 10 conference titles in baseball and basketball, which he coached, and football.

Active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Dick and his wife, Jackie, have three children: Bob, Bill and Kim. He was born in Grinnell, Iowa, Sept. 5, 1929.

Hawkeye Staff Members

Kuchen is in his first year as varsity assistant after serving as freshman coach one season. He played basketball at Rider College, where he scored more than 1,000 points and set a school rebounding record. He played amateur basketball in Western Europe for Gulf Oil, then coached AIP College in Pittsburgh to a 20-2 record in 1969. Dick was on the staff at Washington, Mo., prior to coming to Iowa. He is a native of Asbury Park, N.J., and is single. Born 6/22/44.

JOE ROBERTS—Freshman Coach

A co-captain for Ohio State's 1960 NCAA champions, Roberts is in his first year at Iowa. He played professionally four years (for Syracuse of the NBA, Columbus of the Midwest League and Kentucky of the ABA) and then became a recreation consultant in Ohio. He was named the JayCee of the year in Columbus in 1966. A native of Columbus, Joe was on the Western Michigan staff for two years before coming to Iowa. He and his wife, Celia, have three daughters. Born 5/18/36.

A longtime Iowa City resident, Bus Graham has been handling athletic business matters and ticket sales at Iowa since 1952. Prior to that he was employed for 16 years by a Davenport baking firm and two years by an Iowa City insurance company. He also was a Big Ten football and basketball official for five years before joining the Hawkeye staff. Bus and his wife, Viola, have two daughters. Born 2/23/12.

TOM SPALJ—Physical Therapist

Tom Spalj (pronounced Spile) has been helping Hawkeye athletes recover from various ailments since 1964. His home is Crosby, Minn., where he was a student trainer and developed an interest in treating wounded athletes. He holds a bachelor's degree from St. John's (Minn.) and a physical therapy degree from Iowa. Tom and his wife, Nancy, have two children. Born 12/10/40.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived and hunted with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James G. Edwards of Ft. Madison. Edwards, editor of the Ft. Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and were rewarded when territorial officials gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism. The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a state-wide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 20 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot with a black leather head and gold felt feathers. Since then Herky has become a familiar figure at Hawkeye athletic events.

The Outlook

Things are looking up for Iowa's basketball team. For one thing Kevin Kunnert has grown an inch and now stands an even seven feet. The 231-pound junior is one of seven returnees who played a lot of basketball for the Hawkeyes last winter. There were, in fact, only two significant losses from Coach Dick Schultz' first Iowa squad.

One was All-America Guard Fred Brown, who scored 1,091 points in his two-year career. Now a Seattle SuperSonic, Brown was almost a one-man show at times last year, averaging 27.6 points, shooting 50 percent from the field and thrilling crowds with his ball-handling magic. Omar Hazley was the other key loss. A steady 6-6 performer, he averaged a little better than six rebounds and six points.

The current Hawkeye team has seven players who started one or more games in 1970-71, three outstanding front-liners off the freshman team, plus a junior college transfer with excellent credentials. That's a total of 11 candidates who figure in the race for five starting positions.

Except for center, where Kunnert's big figure looms large, all spots are up for grabs. It's not likely anyone's going to nudge Kevin out of the pivot. He came on strong toward the end of his rookie season and finished with a 10.4 scoring average and 227 rebounds. Kunnert also had the benefit of the Big Ten summer basketball tour through Australia.

Once the early shakedown was completed last season, forward Ken Grabinski (8.9 average) and guard Gary Lusk (8.2) started virtually all games. Both are now seniors. Other key returnees are forwards Sam Williams (7.8) and Joe Gould (3.3), and guards Lynn Rowat (6.2) and Glenn Angelino (4.4).

Sophomores to watch are Jim Collins, Neil Fegebank and Harold Sullinger. All are in the 6-8 range, and Fegebank and Sullinger were high school All-Americans. Collins, however, made the most progress as a freshman, and all three are strong candidates for starting berths.

Several junior college graduates (including Fred Brown) have reached stardom with the Hawkeyes. Rick Williams is the latest JC prospect. A 6-3 guard, he's very quick and a good marksman (23.4 average at Ft. Dodge) and could be just what the Hawkeyes need to recover from the loss of Fred Brown.
