News Media Information

KINNICK STADIUM is located on the west campus in the heart of the University's athletic complex. It is a few minutes' drive from Interstate 80 and the Iowa City airport, about 30 minutes from the Cedar Rapids airport.

PRESSBOX at the stadium is on the west side and accessible by elevator. One of the nation's finest, it was completed in 1958 at a cost of $490,000 (cost to build Kinnick Stadium was $500,000 in 1929). The first deck has 89 seats for working press. The second deck contains ten booths for radio and television. The third and four levels have photo and radio booths and VIP areas. A pregame lunch is served on the first and second decks. The pressbox is 100 feet high and extends between the 25-yard lines.

PRESS TICKET requests should be directed to George Wine, sports information director. Requests should be filed early enough in advance to allow time for processing.

ATHLETIC OFFICES are located on the east side of the Iowa Field House. The Field House is also on the west campus, near the stadium.

MOTELS in the immediate Iowa City area include the Carousel (351-6324), Highlander Inn (354-2000), Ironmen Inn (351-6600), Holiday Inn (338-9771), Howard Johnson Lodge (338-7841), Ramada Inn (645-2940), Colosseum Lodge (354-5500).

YOUR HOSTS in the Kinnick Stadium pressbox are George Wine and Phil Haddy.

Phil, George and Lynn

Wine joined the Iowa staff in 1968 after working at Northern Iowa and Memphis State. He is a member of the NCAA Public Relations Committee. A native of North English, he's an Air Force veteran and an Iowa graduate. George and his wife, Anne, have a son, Steve. Born 6/9/31.

Haddy became part of the Hawkeye staff in 1971. A native of Cedar Rapids, he holds two degrees from Iowa and has worked for two radio stations. Phil and his wife, Elaine, have a son, Jason, and a daughter, Jamie. Born 9/10/47.

SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE is located in Room 110 of the Iowa Field House. The office phone number is 319/353-3038, and the secretary is Lynn Kroeger.

Iowa was recently cited by the Football Writers of America for outstanding press box service and facilities.

The Athletic Director

CHALMERS (BUMP) ELLIOTT is in his eighth year as Iowa's top athletic administrator. He was appointed to the position June 11, 1970, and oversees a staff of 35 men, 11 intercollegiate sports, and a large physical plant.

Bump's rise through the Big Ten ranks has been punctuated with success at every stop. Highlights of his tenure at Iowa include eight Big Ten championships in three sports plus two NCAA wrestling titles.

Elliott has been personally involved in four Big Ten football titles and four Rose Bowl appearances. He was an assistant coach at Iowa for five years and helped build the Hawkeyes into the power of the Big Ten that began with league and bowl championships in 1956.

Iowa won two more Big Ten crowns in the next four years, but Bump was tapped by his alma mater, Michigan, to join the staff there in 1957. He became head coach two years later, and his term as Wolverine boss was highlighted by conference and Rose Bowl wins in 1964. Elliott's 10-year record was 51-42-2 when he quit coaching after the 1968 season to accept administrative duties. After 18 months as Michigan's associate AD, he became athletic director at Iowa.

Elliott played three sports at Michigan in 1946-47-48. A brilliant halfback, he topped the Big Ten in scoring in 1947 with 54 points and spurred the Wolverines to Big Ten and Rose Bowl championships. He led his team in pass receiving and averaged more than five yards a carry. He earned All-America honors, as did his brother Pete, a Michigan quarterback. Bump also played parts of two seasons (1943-44) as a Marine trainee at Purdue. He was selected the Big Ten's MVP in 1947.

Elliott's first coaching job was as an assistant at Oregon State (1948-51). Then he served on the staffs at Iowa (1952-56) and Michigan (1957-58) before becoming head coach there.

Bump is a native of Bloomington, Ill. His father, Dr. J. Norman Elliott, was a physician there and also coached at Illinois Wesleyan and Northwestern. Bump was discharged from the Marines in 1946 and received his degree at Michigan in 1948. He and his wife Barbara have three children: Bill, Bob, and Betsy. All are married. Bump was born in Detroit January 30, 1925.

Comings in Action

The Head Coach

BOB COMMINGS' football teams at Iowa have made steady improvement in his three years as head coach. Bob faced the challenge of picking up the pieces following a winless 1973 season, but progress has been substantial in the face of difficult schedules. Iowa upset nationally ranked UCLA in his second game as head coach. Last year the Hawkeyes took care of rated Penn State and pulled Big Ten upsets at Minnesota and Michigan State. Commings' three-year record is 11-22 in all games and 8-16 in the Big Ten. Following a 5-6 season in 1976, his Hawkeyes appear capable of breaking through the .500 barrier and into the Big Ten's first division this year.

Success at Iowa is nothing new to Commings, who enjoyed plenty as a player. The smallest lineman in the Big Ten at 173 pounds, Bob was a junior guard on Iowa's Big Ten and Rose Bowl championship team of 1956. The following season he won all-conference honors and was named his team's most valuable player. The Hawkeyes had a record of 16-2-1 in Bob's last two years at Iowa.

Bob finished his undergraduate work at Iowa and stayed on to serve as an assistant freshman coach two seasons. He left coaching for a brief time, then took over at Struthers, Ohio, in 1962 and in the next seven years compiled a record of 50-16-4. That was good enough to earn him a shot at the top job in the state: Washington High School in Massillon. In five seasons at the tradition-rich high school, Commings produced a record of 44-5-1 and had the state championship team in 1970, when he earned coach of the year honors. His total high school record is 94-21-5.

Bob is a native of Youngstown, Ohio, where he was an all-state football guard and a baseball shortstop. He enrolled at Iowa in 1952, won a letter the next season, then spent two years in the Army in Europe. He is married to the former Sharon McGinnis of Iowa City. The couple has two sons, Bob Jr. and Don.

An entertaining public speaker, Bob has appeared before literally thousands of persons since taking the Iowa job December 14, 1973. One of several former Massillon coaches now in major college or professional football, Bob is big on physical conditioning and regularly plays paddleball and tennis. He is the fifth former Hawkeye to coach at his alma mater. Commings was born December 24, 1932, in Youngstown, Ohio.

Coaching Staff

Dave Beckman Offensive Backs

A native of Bellevue, Ohio, where he was an all-state lineman, Beckman went on to Baldwin-Wallace College and starred in football and track. He coached in Ohio high schools at Youngstown, Warren and Akron after a year on the staff at Baldwin-Wallace. He came to Iowa Dec. 21, 1973, after coaching at the college level at Adrian and Evansville. He and his wife Pat have two sons, Tim and Ted. Born 6/8/38.

Larry Coyer Defensive Coordinator

An outstanding defensive back and wrestler at Marshall, Coyer was named that school's athlete of the year as a senior. He served on the staff of his alma mater, then took high school jobs at Martins Ferry and Massillon in Ohio. He was on Bob Commings' staff at Massillon. Coyer was at Bowling Green a year before joining the Iowa staff Dec. 20, 1973. He is a native of West Virginia. His wife's name is Linda. Born 4/19/43.

Larry Donovan Quarterbacks

A graduate of Nebraska, where he was president of the lettermen's club, Donovan started his coaching career there as a graduate assistant. He was on the staffs at South Dakota and Washington State before his appointment at Iowa February 10, 1976. As an army lieutenant, he coached a service team to an unbeaten season while serving in Korea. He and his wife Georgia have two daughters, Andrea and Molly. Born 3/31/41.

Tom Hayes Defensive Backs

A fine defensive back at Iowa, Tom Hayes played for two Hawkeye teams that finished in the Big Ten's first division. He joined the Iowa staff in April, 1977, after coaching three years at Kuemper of Carroll. He has also served on the staffs at Regina of Iowa City, LaSalle of Cedar Rapids, and Coe College. An Atlantic native, Tom and his wife Cindy have one son, Andy. Born 3/26/49.

Paul Kemp Offensive Line

A former Iowa quarterback, Paul Kemp joined the Hawkeye staff in April, 1977, after serving as head coach four years at Boston University. His background includes staff assignments at Ball State, Arizona State, Iowa State, and Pittsburgh, plus a scouting job with the Atlanta Falcons. A native of Waterloo and an Army veteran, Paul and his wife Beth have three daughters: Michelle, Melinda, and Mellissa. Born 2/9/31.

Dan McCarney Offensive Line

A co-captain at Iowa in 1974 (Bob Comings' first season as head coach), Dan McCarney was a solid performer at offensive guard who was later drafted by the Atlanta Falcons. One of the most dedicated Hawkeyes of his era, he served his apprenticeship at Iowa as a graduate assistant before joining the staff full-time in April, 1977. Dan is a bachelor and a native of Iowa City. Born 7/28/53.

Gus Pachis Linebackers

A native of Massillon, Ohio, Pachis coached there and at Canton, Ohio, before joining the Iowa staff January 20, 1976. He was on the Massillon staff for 10 years, the last five while Bob Comings was head coach there. He is a graduate of Miami of Ohio and holds a master's degree from Akron. He and his wife Karen have a son, Trevor. Born 1/8/41.

Rich Solomon Receivers

Rich Solomon's biggest thrill as an Iowa defensive back came in 1969 when he made a game-saving interception against Michigan State in a regionally televised game. He was a Hawkeye graduate assistant before serving on the staffs at Dubuque University and Southern Illinois. He joined the Iowa staff in January, 1977. A New Orleans native, Rich is single. Born 12/8/49.

Bill Whisler Defensive Tackles

As an offensive end for the Hawkeyes, Whisler caught 30 passes for 444 yards and four touchdowns. He played in the North-South game following his senior season. He played ten years in the Canadian League as a defensive end and made all-league four times. He played in the first Canadian all-star game. He was on the coaching staff at Yankton College before coming to Iowa February 27, 1974. His wife's name is Earlyn. Born 11/15/40.

Bernie Wyatt Defensive Ends

An MVP for Iowa as a junior in 1960, Wyatt was a defensive back who intercepted seven career passes and played in the Blue-Gray game following his senior season. He coached at Regina of Iowa City and Lindenhurst, N.Y., before returning January 15, 1974, to coach at his alma mater. An all-American prep at Amityville, N.Y., he and his wife Barbara have two sons, Brad and Barry. Born 8/21/38.

Hall of Fame Hawkeyes

Eleven men who have been associated with Iowa football are members of the Hall of Fame, named by the National Football Foundation and/or the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Six men have been named to the Halls of both foundations: Howard Jones, coach; Nile Kinnick, player; Gordon Locke, player; Fred (Duke) Slater, player; Dr. Edward Anderson, coach; Edward (Slip) Madigan, coach.

Four men have been named to the Hall of the Helms Foundation: Calvin Jones, player; Ossie Solem, coach; Emlen Tunnell, professional player; Eric Wilson, publicist. Aubrey Devine was named to the NFF Hall as a player.

Kinnick Stadium

Iowa Stadium was renamed in 1972 to honor Nile Kinnick, Heisman Trophy winner and star halfback of the legendary 1939 Iowa Ironmen. The consensus all-American and Phi Beta Kappa scholar was killed when his plane went down at sea while he was serving in the Navy in World War II. Kinnick Stadium was built in 1929 at a cost of less than a half million dollars. It has undergone several major renovations and today has a capacity of some 60,000.

The Outlook

Some interesting numbers: Iowa has 42 lettermen and 15 starters returning from a team that finished 5-6 in 1976. Those are the kind of figures that bring optimism to any football program, and Iowa is no exception.

"We believe we're going to have a good football team," says Bob Commings, whose Hawkeyes have improved steadily in his three years as head coach. Still, Iowa has finished in a tie for seventh place in the Big Ten in each of those seasons. Now Commings thinks his club has a realistic shot at the first division.

"Overall, this is the best squad we've had since I've been coach here," Bob explains. "We have more talent and depth. Physically, we will be a very strong team. People pretty much stopped pushing us around last year. We are bringing in the best crop of recruits I've seen at Iowa during my playing or coaching days here. I think we'll be improved, and as I said last year, I hope this is reflected in our record at the end of the season."

The Hawkeyes have indeed made great progress since Commings and his staff arrived. In 1974, following an 0-11 season, Iowa managed to win three games but was blown off the field in several losses. The following season the Hawkeyes were much more competitive, although the record was again 3-8. Last year Iowa improved to 5-6 and was in all but two games. "We could have just as well been 8-3," reflects Commings.

Although he has 15 starters returning from the team that won at Michigan State to finish 1976, not all are listed as probable starters. That's a good indication of how competitive things are in the Hawkeye camp. Most observers think Iowa's defense is considerably ahead of the offense but there is certainly enough experience on the attacking force.

The schedule is tough, as usual, and includes a revival of the Iowa State series that has been dormant since 1934. UCLA and Arizona round out the nonconference slate. Every league opponent except Illinois is on the Big Ten schedule.

THE OFFENSE: Most good attacks start with a good quarterback, but Commings is unsure who will be his triggerman. Butch Caldwell, an exciting scrambler, is gone. Tom McLaughlin is a three-year letterman who started most of his sophomore season, but he will have to beat out Doug Piro, a senior with little experience. The freshman class includes three good prospects, but it's hard to count on rookies at this position.

A year ago Iowa had virtually no experienced running backs or linemen, but now there are plenty of veterans at those spots. Fullback Jon Lazar led the Hawkeyes in rushing while Ernie Sheeler, Dennis Mosley, and Tommy

Jon Lazar

Renn shared the tailback spot. Doug Benschoter, a top defensive end, was switched to offensive guard in a key spring training move. He has some quality sidekicks in center Jim Hilgenberg, guard Mike Mayer, tackles Barry Tomasetti and Sam Palladino, and tight end Jim Swift.

Iowa's passing game was sometimes sensational but inconsistent last season. Leading receivers Bill Schultz, an outstanding big-play man, and Tom Grine have departed. All returning running backs did a good job catching the ball, and Mike Brady is a fine split end. The addition of Brad Reid, who led national juco receivers in 1976, makes the picture encouraging.

"We won't have to ask so much of our QB this year because our offense will be stronger," predicts Commings. "We want the QB to be the trigger and not the bullet. We've also incorporated more wing-T into our attack. If we eliminate the errors we made last year we'll be OK on offense."

THE DEFENSE: The Hawkeyes ranked a solid third in total defense in the Big Ten last year, and coordinator Larry Coyer thinks his troops can move up a notch. Stats against scoring weren't as impressive, but the defenders were frequently placed in precarious positions by offensive or kicking errors.

Linebackers will be the strength, with two all-star candidates in Tom Rusk and Dean Moore. Mike Jackson is the third starter, and three vets will serve as backups. "We're two-deep and exceptionally solid at linebacker," says Commings.

Tackle Joe Hufford and end Steve Vazquez were the most consistent performers in the defensive line last year. They return, along with vets Joe Willis and Dan Schultz at tackles and Jim Molini and Steve Wagner at ends. Juco transfer Darrell Hobbs plus an outstanding crop of big freshmen will help make Iowa's front four all the more formidable.

Five members of the defensive secondary are former starters. Roger Stech and Dave Becker were sidelined by injuries but are healthy again. Rod Sears was a Big Ten co-leader in pass interceptions last year, and safety Cedric Shaw is a potential all-star. Chuck Danzy was a regular last year. Lettermen Chuck Sodergren and Mario Pace lend strong support.

"This is our second year with the 4-3, and our defense should be the best Iowa has had in a long time," says Commings, who has made defense his No. 1 priority since the day he took the Iowa job.

KICKING GAME: Record setter Nick Quartaro (placements and kickoffs) and consistent Dan Matter (punter) have both graduated. Dave Holsclaw, who averaged 42 yards on six punts last year, will take over that job. Scott Schilling, who booted a 46-yard field goal in the spring game, is the top candidate to replace Quartaro.

THE OUTLOOK—Chances for a turnaround in the Northwestern program in 1977 are slim. The Wildcats have won only 11 games in four years under Coach John Pont. Only one of those victories came last season, and graduated from that 1-10 team are Greg Boykin, the school's all-time leading rusher; Scott Yelvington, the all-time leading pass receiver; Rob Dean, the fourth-best career passer; and Pete Shaw, a two-time all-Big Ten safety. Still, the always-optimistic Pont sees glimmers of salvation. Nine linemen with some starting experience will provide the foundation for the offense. Split end Mark Bailey, who caught 32 passes last year, is one of them. Tailback Pat Geegan and fullback Jim Whims, who covered 942 yards between them in 1976, are also back. Steve Breitbeil and Scott Stranski are the front-runners to succeed Dean in the quarterback role. Paul Maly, a three-year starter at middle guard who has moved to linebacker, will anchor the defense. Three-time letterman Greg Stanley will be his counterpart. Both tackles and safeties also return.

THE OUTLOOK—Iowa State's offense, ranked second in the nation, led the way to a surprising 8-3 1976 season. The burden to match that mark will be on the defense. Two fine tackles, Tom Randall and Mike Stensrud, and middle guard Ron McFarland will anchor the defense. Linebacker Tom Boskey is another standout. Only one other starter returns, but Coach Earle Bruce can choose from a large cast of lettermen to fill in the rest of the lineup. Junior college transfer Jerry Washington, a cornerback, will help, too. The prospectus for the offense, which ran up 369 points and 4,836 yards last year, is far from bleak. Tailback Dexter Green, slotback Ray Hardee, and fullback Cal Cummins return, as do two starters in the offensive line. The weakest area will be the passing game. ISU lost its two top quarterbacks and two best receivers. The kicking game will be strong again. Rick Blabolil averaged 43 yards a punt last year, while place-kicker Scott Kollman scored 75 points.

THE OUTLOOK—New Coach Tony Mason enters an Arizona picture that is promising. Sixteen starters from the 1976 Wildcat team greet Mason's arrival from Cincinnati. All five defensive linemen and all five offensive linemen return. The top two quarterbacks, top two tailbacks, fullback, and tight end are back. Three-fourths of the defensive secondary returns, as does one of the nation's top place-kickers and the two best punters. The only weak areas appear to be linebacker, where there's only one player with experience, and receiving, where the top two graduated. Among the people Mason will depend on most are kicker Lee Pistor, who booted 13 field goals last year including a 54-yarder, 270-pound offensive tackle Bill Segal, defensive tackle Jon Abbott, and defensive end Gilbert Lewis. Senior Mark Lunsford and sophomore Jim Krohn will again share the quarterbacking chores. They threw for 1,900 yards and ran for 350 last year.

THE OUTLOOK—The loss of eight offensive starters may prevent UCLA from being a contender for the national championship again in Terry Donahue's second season as coach. The defense will be tough enough, though, to give the Bruins a shot at the Pac-Eight crown. Among the standouts on defense are all-America linebacker Jerry Robinson and two all-conference performers, cornerback Levi Armstrong and tackle Manu Tuiasosopo. Other starters from last season's 9-2-1 club are linebackers Raymond Bell and Frank Stephens, nose guard Steve Tetrick, and safety Pat Schmidt. Most of the graduates from an offense that scored 28 points or more in all nine victories will be tough to replace. One is quarterback Jeff Dankworth. Steve Bukich and Rick Bashore, who both saw limited action in 1976, are the leading QB candidates. The only vets in the offensive lineup will be halfback Theotis Brown, tight end Don Pederson, and 260-pound tackle Gus Coppins. The Bruin roster has some outstanding rookies.

THE OUTLOOK—Coach Cal Stoll has had the Minnesota program headed in the right direction during his five years at the school. The Gophers are coming off a third-place finish in the Big Ten and their first back-to-back winning seasons in almost a decade. Stoll thinks this year's squad will be his best yet. Eight defensive starters return, with experience lacking only at one end, nose guard, and safety. The defense includes six two-year starters: standout tackle Steve Midboe, end Mark Merrill, cornerbacks Bobby Weber and Tom Luckemeyer, and linebackers Steve Stewart and Michael Hunt. The biggest question mark is quarterback. One junior and five sophomores, all inexperienced, are battling to succeed Tony Dungy. Kent Kitzmann, John Mathews, and Steve Breault, who were 1-3-4 in Gopher rushing last year, are back. The starting center, tackle, and tight end also return. Minnesota hopes to avoid another late-season swoon; the Gophers lost four of their last five in 1976.

THE OUTLOOK—Some outstanding football players from last year's 9-2-1 Buckeye edition have graduated, but just as many return. Among the departed are fullbacks Pete Johnson, guard Bill Lukens, defensive end Bob Brudzinski, linebacker Ed Thompson, and kicking specialist Tom Skladany. Among the returning are halfback Jeff Logan, quarterback Rod Gerald, offensive tackle Chris Ward, middle guard Aaron Brown, and safety Ray Griffin. Eleven other starters are also back so Woody Hayes, now into his fourth decade of coaching, is justified in eyeing his 13th league crown. With Logan and Gerald leading the way, the Ohio State running game is in good shape. Ron Springs will probably be the other running back, giving the Buckeyes an extremely swift trio of ball-carriers. Three interior linemen, the tight end, and top pass receiver Jim Harrell are also back. The defensive backfield remains intact. Overall, the Buckeye picture is rosy as always.

Series Record—Purdue, 35-16-2

THE OUTLOOK—New Coach Jim Young comes from Arizona, where his teams put a lot of points on the board and averaged 18 touchdown passes per season. In the Big Ten, the emphasis is on defense and the running game, and that was certainly the case at Purdue in 1976. The Boilermakers scored more than three touchdowns only twice, did not connect for a TD pass all season, and still won five of 11 games. Young says the ball will be in the air more often at Lafayette this fall, but his returning personnel would seem to warn against such strategy. An experienced quarterback is not present. Senior fullback John Skibinski, who ran for 871 yards while serving as a blocking back for the departed Scott Dierking, does return, along with veterans at nine defensive positions. Standouts are linebackers Fred Arrington and Kevin Motts and all-Big Ten safety Paul Beery. Young's foremost concern, besides quarterback, is the offensive line, where only one starter is back.

THE OUTLOOK—Nine offensive starters return from last year's unit which led the nation in three major categories. For that reason alone, the Wolverines will be extremely tough to beat. Among those back from the 1976 scoring machine (432 points) are junior quarterback Rick Leach, backfield speedsters Harlan Huckleby and Russell Davis, the entire interior line anchored by all-America guard Mark Donahue, and the top two tight ends. Sophomore running back Ralph Clayton should also contribute. Coach Bo Schembechler believes halfback Rob Lytle and wingback Jim Smith, both graduated all-Americans, will not be missed. The defensive picture is not quite so glorious, but a lengthy precedent is on Schembechler's side, since bad defense and Michigan football are contradictory. Two all-Americans, linebacker Cal O'Neal and tackle Greg Morton, were lost. But several standouts return, among them linebackers John Anderson and Dom Tedesco and defensive back Dwight Hicks.

Returning Starters—14

Conference—Big Ten

Series Record—Iowa, 24-16-4

THE OUTLOOK—After winning only five games his first three years at Indiana, Coach Lee Corso doubled that total last season. The defense was inconsistent, though. The Hoosiers gave up nearly twice as many points as they scored and may not be much improved, so Corso's team will probably need to score a lot of points if it is to have a winning campaign. The offensive picture is full of good news. The starting backfield of tailback Mike Harkrader, fullback Ric Enis, flanker Keith Calvin, and quarterback Scott Arnett remains intact. Harkrader ran for 1,003 yards as a freshman, Enis added 675, and Calvin led the team in receiving. The top two split ends and three veteran interior linemen are also back. Although the defense's No. 2 unit suffered no losses, five starters are gone. End Carl Smith, a three-year letterman, and linebacker Joe Norman are the top performers. The other end position, one tackle, and both safety spots will be manned by vets.

34-19-1

THE OUTLOOK—Despite winning only five games last year, Coach John Jardine's Badgers scored 298 points, and the combination of seven returning starters, an important position switch and a promising quarterback could result in a similar total. The offense will be built around halfback Ira Matthews. He ran for 535 yards, caught 19 passes, and returned two kickoffs for scores last year. Split end David Charles, who caught 34 passes as a sophomore, also returns, along with both starting tackles and three other lettermen in the interior line. Mike Morgan and Tim Halleran give the Badgers a double punch at fullback. Quarterback Anthony Dudley, who stepped into the shoes of the departed Mike Carroll to throw for 166 yards and three TDs in the spring game, completes the offensive picture. The defense could again be Wisconsin's downfall. Although seven players started five or more games in 1976, only two started all 11. The top performers will be end Dennis Stejskal, safety Scott Erdmann, and linebacker Dave Crossen.

Returning Starters—13

Conference—Big Ten

Series Record—MSU, 8-5-1

THE OUTLOOK—Michigan State may be a bit stronger in Darryl Rogers' second year as coach. The passing attack, best in the Big Ten last year, will again be the team's strength; the defense, worst in the league against the rush in 1976, will once more be the weak link. Quarterback Eddie Smith, the conference total offense champion, returns to key the aerial attack, along with three fine receivers: flanker Kirk Gibson, the Big Ten's best in 1976, Mark Brammer, and Gene Byrd. Fullback Jim Early will be the top ball-carrier, while center Al Pitts and tackle Jim Hinesly will anchor the line. The defense, which let opponents score 30 points or more in five games last season, needs shoring up. The return of two good linebackers, Paul Rudzinski and Dan Bass, and two fine linemen, middle guard Kim Rowekamp and tackle Larry Bethea, will help. MSU will have one of the best kicking games in the country, with Hans Nielsen handling placements, Tom Birney kicking off and Ray Stachowicz doing the punting.

- 1973—Bob Commings was named head coach Dec. 15.

Iowa in the Top Ten

Since the wire services began running polls 35 years ago, Iowa has ranked among the nation's top ten a half-dozen times. Additionally, the Hawkeyes were named national champions by the Football Writers Association in 1958. Here is the way Iowa has been ranked by the Associated Press and United Press International:

- |                                   |                                   |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1939—No. 9 by both wire services. | 1957—No. 5 by UPI, No. 6 by AP.   |
| 1953—No. 9 by both wire services. | 1958—No. 2 by both wire services. |
| 1956—No. 3 by both wire services. | 1960—No. 2 by UPI, No. 3 by AP.   |

Television Appearances

Televised games bring out the best in Iowa football teams. Hawkeyes have a record of 18-5-1 on TV, and during one stretch (1955 to 1959) went 10 games without defeat. In national appearances the record is 9-2-1, in regional appearances, 9-3.

Iowa's All-Time Team

The selection of Nile Kinnick as the greatest player ever to perform for the Hawkeyes highlights the naming of Iowa's all-time football team. Fans selected the team as part of the Big Ten's 75th anniversary celebration in 1970. Calvin Jones received more votes than any other player, but in a separate ballot Kinnick got the greatest player nod over Jones by a sizable margin. Kinnick received the Heisman, Maxwell and Walter Camp trophies in 1939. Jones won the Outland Trophy in 1955.

Herky and the Hawkeyes

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawk-eye was originally applied to a hero in a fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Author Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived and hunted with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James G. Edwards of Ft. Madison. Edwards, editor of the Ft. Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawk-Eye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name and were rewarded when territorial officials gave it their formal approval.

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawk, was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism. The impish hawk was an immediate hit and he acquired a name through a state-wide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 25 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot with a black leather head and gold felt feathers. Since then Herky has become a familiar figure at Hawk-eye athletic events.

Floyd of Rosedale

A bet in 1935 between Minnesota Governor Floyd B. Olson and Iowa Governor Clyde Herring gave birth to Floyd of Rosedale. Tensions between the two state universities had been running high and a wager was made in an effort to relieve the situation. After Iowa lost the game, Herring presented Olson with Floyd of Rosedale, a full-blooded champion pig and a brother of Blue Boy of Will Rogers' movie, "State Fair." Olson presented the pig to the University of Minnesota and commissioned St. Paul sculptor Charles Brioscho to capture Floyd's image. The result is a bronze pig 21 inches long and 15 inches high. Floyd currently resides in Iowa City as a result of last year's Iowa victory.
